

ICFO's Annual General Meeting, May 18th, 2018 - Mexico City

Public Conference

Developing & Maintaining Donors' Trust - The role of monitoring organizations

8:30 - 9:00	Registration
9:00 - 9:10	Welcome - Enrique Hernández, Confio's board president and Homero Apodaca, from the Social Action Movement of Memory and Tolerance Museum
9:10 - 9:30	ICFO: ICFO Presentation - Martina Ziegerer, board president of ICFO
9:30 - 10:00	Perceptions and feelings towards the U.S. charitable sector. Ezra Vázquez - D'Amico. Better Business Bureau, Wise Giving Alliance
10:00 - 10:40	Building confidence in corrupt environments, Jesús González Arellano, Pacto Mundial en México, President of the Board.
10:40 - 10:55	BREAK
10:55 - 11:35	Whom do you trust?: The central challenge for philanthropy in Mexico and Latin America. Michael Layton. Arizona State University, Senior Research Fellow.
11:35 - 11:55	The Spanish experience in the development of a prosperous environment towards external assessment in Civil Society Organizations. Ana Benavidez Fundación Lealtad España, Executive Director.
11:55 - 12:15	Finding Success in DZI Germany: 125 Years Encouraging Charity. Burkhard Wilke, Executive Director of Deutsches Zentralinstitut für soziale Fragen, Executive Director
12:15 - 13:10	LUNCH
13:10 - 14:00	Panel 1: Contributions to third sector through assessment and monitoring of CSOs. Sharing experiences: Curtis Towns from Canadian Council of Christian Charities. Lena Hörnblad from Svensk Insamlingskontroll, Sweden and Nathalie Blum from Comité de la Charte, France.
14:00 - 14:50	Panel 2: Citizen participation grounded in information and public disclosure. Sharing challenges. Aleš Mrázek, from Asociace veřejně prospěšných organizací (AVPO). Czech Republic, Art Taylor from BBB Wise Giving Alliance, USA and Eduardo Bohórquez López, executive director of Transparencia Mexicana.
14:50 - 15:00	Closing remarks - Martina Ziegerer - President of ICFO.

In collaboration with:

